Bunratty Castle & Folk Park

Immerse yourself in Ireland's rich medieval heritage at Ireland's most popular visitor attraction outside of Dublin and discover how life was like through out the ages to present day.

After meeting you at your accommodation, we drive directly to Bunratty Castle. This magnificent fortress was built in 1425, and was later restored in 1954. It contains furnishings, tapestries and relics of Medieval times it's a real highlight to anyone's visit to Ireland. Venturing to the top, you'll see some impressive views of the Shannon estuary. The Castle is also renowned for its superb Medieval Banquets held all year round.

The Folk Park itself is set amongst 26 acres of meadow and woodland, and offers a spectacular depiction of rural Irish life throughout the ages. All visitors walk in and out of a historic time line of crofters cottages, before reaching a superb replica of a Victorian village main street, complete with working shops, pubs and eateries.

What's more, there's a fort and adventure playground and woodland walks to be enjoyed too. Apart from the Village setting, Bunratty also features a superb gift shop packed full of treasures and souvenirs to take home. And as it has its own distillery, Bunratty Mead and Potcheen, (Irish Moonshine) is also on offer.

Outside of the complex, Bunratty also offers visitors two superb pubs, world Famous 'Durty Nelly's' and 'The Creamery', plus the Blarney Woolen Mills Retail Outlet, with instore cafe.

As we pass through this region enjoying the scenery, don't forget to ask your chauffeur what other opportunities this great county offers before heading back
